In Our Prayers... Judy Newhouse will return this week from helping with the summer VBS program in Hong Kong. Marvin Babcock passed away on Tuesday. His funeral will be here tomorrow at 10:30 AM.

Amanda Groshek is with us today to share between the services. She is the grand-daughter of Irma Nissen, who died several years ago. We first supported Amanda as a missionary in Taiwan, now she is working in Hungary.

Family Vacation Bible School next week -“Jerusalem at the time of Jesus” is the theme for our evening VBS, August 6-9 from 6-7:30 PM. We will be looking at the events in Jesus’ life during Holy Week, from Palm Sunday through Easter. This will be an evening class which will begin with a meal and then have activities for the whole family. This is designed for families who cannot schedule their children during the June daytime VBS. Mark September 9 on your calendars as the date for our Rally Day for Sunday School. We will have stations depicting life in Jesus’ time.
